

Clean Ones In The News

PL Buyer – December 16, 2009

E-Report New Product

Clean Ones offers a comprehensive display program to assist with in-store “cleaning season” promotions during the spring and fall of 2010. The program can be used for all boxed and bagged household gloves retailers merchandise under their own brands, including disposable vinyl and latex gloves. Display options include a six- or nine-cell partitioned power panel option (with optional floor stand) and a gravity feed panel.
